Being an intern at JOGL comes with opportunities for growth, professional development, and leadership. You will be joining a global team composed of the organization's co-founders, a development team, communications team, and program managers. Visit our website for a full team description. At JOGL, skills and motivation are worth more than diplomas!

You are:

- Motivated! You like the idea of contributing to the emergence of a new model of participatory research and innovation.
- Autonomous! You have organisational skills and you like to take initiatives. You have the ability to choose which is the best way to develop a feature.
- Curious! You are innovative, creative and constantly looking for ways to improve your work.
- Organized! Document yourself and share your thoughts with the group!
- Efficient! You are able to work in a timely manner, with short deadlines and imperatives.
- Problem Solver! You enjoy finding solutions and resolving issues quickly and efficiently.
- Collaborative! You are able to work in a team and are able to communicate with people without technical knowledge.

Bottom line : Be ready for an extraordinary adventure! You must be motivated to get to the heart of the matter, you will be active to the rhythm of a changing world. Valuable experience with a young team of digital culture, tech for good, open data-big data and open science
